

Delta Conservancy Coordinates Clean Up at Brannan Island State Park Saturday, September 15 9:00am – 11:00am

The Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta Conservancy is partnering with Brannan Island State Park to coordinate a Coastal Cleanup Day at the park on Saturday, September 15th. The clean-up project is to support the community's efforts to keep the park open and remind nearby recreationists that Brannan Island State Park is open year round. Volunteers are invited to participate in this cleanup event.

Register online at www.deltaconservancy.ca.gov, with volunteer coordinator Andy McGuirk at 415-244-2759, or Conservancy staff Susan Roberts, 916-375-2088.

Other Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta Conservancy partners include: the California Coastal Commission, Snodgrass Solutions, Inc., and the California State University Sacramento Environmental Students Organization.
